

See Absence Analytics and Support promoted on Sun Life's microsite

Sun Life Financial is promoting Absence Analytics and Support with a new "flipbook" on our Benefits Canada microsite.

Have you visited Sun Life's microsite lately? We first told you about it on June 3 in Focus Update #230. View it by linking to www.benefitscanada.com. Then select the button with Sun Life's logo on the right-hand side. It's a popular online venue that plan sponsors visit to learn about breaking industry news and trends. And it's where Sun Life Group Benefits can showcase some of its leading business solutions.

Causes and costs of employee absences

Absence Analytics and Support can help you understand the causes and costs of absenteeism, and establish clear standards while promoting employee engagement and productivity.

Our new "flipbook" on the microsite will direct you to more information on Sun Life's Absence Analytics and Support offering.

Visit often

Please continue to tune in to the microsite periodically as we rotate content about exciting new plans, services and product updates. It is a great resource for us to showcase some of our newest innovations!
