

Important coverage update for Continuous Glucose Monitors (CGMs)

Hi <%= recipient.firstName %>,

We're writing about important changes to your benefits plan.

What's changing

Starting March 1st, 2026, all Continuous Glucose Monitors (CGMs) will be subject to CGM maximums (the maximum amount your plan will pay) and will follow the same medical eligibility requirements.

Devices include FreeStyle Libre, Dexcom, and Guardian.

Your CGM coverage applies to sensors, receivers/readers, and transmitters. Choose the device that best fits your needs.

What this means for you

- All CGMs, including Freestyle Libre, will count towards your CGM maximum.
- Your CGM coverage will be subject to medical eligibility requirements (actively using diabetic medication).

Not taking diabetic medication?

If you (or your dependent) continue to use the same FreeStyle CGM device, your coverage will remain. Any claims toward a different CGM device must meet the medical eligibility criteria.

Have a Health Spending Account (HSA)?

You can use it to pay for costs your plan doesn't cover.
