— MY SAVINGS —

A guide to securing your future with your group plan at work

Group Retirement Services are provided by Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, a member of the Sun Life group of companies.
© Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, 2023.

Whether you're saving for retirement or for next year's vacation, saving for your future just got easier.

With convenient contribution options, competitive fund management fees, and all of your investment earnings sheltered from tax, your group plan at work is one of the smartest and easiest ways to save for your future goals.

This guide contains important information about the advantages of membership in your group plan. We recommend that you review the guide and file it in a safe place for future reference.

Your choice of accounts

my savings provides both a Group Registered Retirement Savings Plan (Group RRSP) and a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA) option.

- Group RRSP for your retirement: Your Group RRSP offers the benefit of pre-tax payroll deduction contributions, so you get an immediate tax break every time you contribute. In addition, all of your investment earnings are tax-deferred until you withdraw them. Because withdrawals are fully taxable, this account is designed to help you save for longer-term goals such as retirement.
- TFSA for retirement and other savings goals: For other savings goals, your TFSA is an excellent way to save. You contribute with after-tax dollars through pre-authorized bank account withdrawals. You don't get an upfront tax deduction – but you never pay Canadian tax on the investment earnings in your account* and all withdrawals are completely tax-free. A TFSA gives you complete flexibility to use your savings for any short-, medium- or long-term goal – cars, home down payment, vacations, education, retirement. The choice is yours!

 Foreign tax may apply on certain foreign income.*

Enrolling in the plan

Enrolling in the plan is quick and easy.

1. Complete and sign the enrolment form(s).
There are two enrolment forms for the RRSP (one for you and one for your spouse) and one for the TFSA. You'll find the forms in Appendix C of this booklet.
2. Return the completed form(s) to your employer.

If you wish to contribute to a Spousal RRSP, ask your spouse to complete the my savings RSP enrolment form and check the appropriate box for a Spousal RSP (see the Question and Answer section at the end of this guide for more information on Spousal RRSP accounts).

If you have any questions about the enrolment process, please call Sun Life's Client Care Centre at 1-877-SUN-LIFE from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. ET, any business day, or contact the Plan Advisor servicing your plan.

Making contributions

Contributions to my savings can be made in three ways:

1. Payroll deductions for your Group RRSP – Just complete the enclosed RSP enrolment form and return it to your employer. On the form, you'll choose the amount of contribution you wish to make on a regular basis, subject to a minimum monthly contribution of $25.
2. Pre-authorized contributions from your bank account for your TFSA – Just complete the enclosed TFSA enrolment form and return it to your employer. On the form, you'll choose the amount of contribution you wish to make on a regular basis, subject to a minimum monthly contribution of $50.
3. Additional contributions for either your Group RRSP or TFSA – You can make a lump sum contribution (that is, a contribution of any amount, that isn't part of your regular contributions) online at mysunlife.ca, our plan member services website, or through my Sun Life Mobile our mobile app* available free to download at the Apple App Store and Google Play.

To ensure you don't over-contribute to your Group RRSP, be sure to refer to the 'Notice of Assessment' provided to you by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) after you filed your last income tax return. This form has your RRSP contribution limit for the current year. CRA limits apply to all TFSA accounts you may have. Sign up for the CRA service called My Account to check your available TFSA contribution room for the year online at www.cra.gc.ca.

When calculating how much you can contribute to your group plan at work, you must remember to include contributions to other personal RRSPs, spousal RRSPs, and TFSAs you may have made. The annual contribution limits apply to your total annual contributions made to all of these plans, not just those under my savings.

 Depending on your plan or policy, some features may not be available.*

Making your investment choices

You'll find detailed information and analysis from Morningstar®, a leading provider of investment news and analysis at mysunlife.ca.

What are segregated funds?

The market-based investment funds in your group plan are known as segregated funds. The assets in a segregated fund are held by an insurance company for investment either by the insurance company or by a professional fund manager. The assets in segregated funds are held in a separate account of the insurance company and are segregated from the insurance company's other assets. Generally, neither the value of the assets nor the rate of return is guaranteed for segregated funds in your group plan.

You have a wide selection of investment categories from which to choose. Here's a quick overview of each.

Funds for a help me do it portfolio

A Help me do it portfolio is designed to be a one-stop investment solution. Just choose the fund that meets your investor profile or savings goal and the fund manager takes care of the rest. My savings offers the following Help me do it option:

Granite target date funds: These funds are structured to coincide with a key life event such as retirement and have a portfolio asset mix that adjusts automatically as you get closer to your goal. These funds are best suited for investors who:

- Know when they'll need the money they're investing
- Are looking for capital growth over set time periods
- Have other priorities in their lives and are comfortable with experts monitoring and adjusting their investments.

Funds for a let me do it portfolio

With a Let me do it approach, you choose a mix of individual funds from the menu of fund options to create your own diversified portfolio to match your investor profile.

Guaranteed funds: These funds earn a set rate of interest along with a guarantee that the interest, along with the capital, will be returned to you after a specific term. They are a very low-risk investment. Terms range from one year up to five years. Withdrawals or transfers from guaranteed funds prior to maturity are paid at the lesser of book or market value. Death benefits are paid without a market value adjustment.

As a member of my savings, we're pleased to offer you special enhancements to the guaranteed interest rates. You'll receive an automatic 0.25% enhancement over the plan's base interest rate. You'll also receive an additional enhancement based on your guaranteed fund balance. For example, you will receive an additional 0.20% enhancement on investments between $10,000 and $24,999.

Guaranteed fund balance	Interest rate enhancement
$10,000 to $24,999	0.20%
$25,000 to $49,999	0.25%
$50,000 to $99,999	0.30%
$100,000 to $249,999	0.35%
$250,000 +	0.40%

Guaranteed Daily Interest Account: This product earns interest daily. The principal investment and any accumulated interest is guaranteed by Sun Life. The interest rate can change. There is no market value adjustment or penalty on withdrawals.

Fixed income funds: Fixed income funds are also known as bond funds and typically invest in bonds issued by Canadian governments and companies. As well as sometimes paying a rate of interest, many bonds held in these funds also have a “market value” which can rise and fall depending on interest rates.

Canadian equity funds: These funds invest primarily in stocks of Canadian companies. Traditionally, stocks have risen in value more than other types of investments, so they offer the greatest potential for long-term growth. However, with stock prices fluctuating more than other types of investments, investing in stock funds is also riskier.

Foreign equity funds: As their name suggests, foreign equity funds (which includes U.S. equity, International equity and Global equity) invest primarily in stocks of companies located outside of Canada. As with Canadian equity funds, foreign equity funds offer greater potential for long-term growth, but can be riskier than other types of investments.

A default investment option will be selected for you when you enrol in my savings. The Sun Life Granite™ funds will be the default investment option when you are enrolled in the RRSP. For your convenience you will be enrolled in the Granite™ fund with the maturity date occurring just prior to your 65th birthday. The Sun Life Guaranteed Daily Interest Account will be the default investment option when you are enrolled in the TFSA.

These funds are provided as a temporary investment at enrolment and you are encouraged to assess different investment options based on your risk profile.

Complete the investment risk profiler online

Whether you choose a Help me do it or Let me do it approach, we encourage you to complete the Investment risk profiler included in Appendix A of this guide to determine your investment risk comfort level.

Once you have submitted your enrolment form(s) and registered for online access, you can also complete the Asset Allocation Tool online through our Plan Member Services website. Simply go to mysunlife.ca > manage plan > my plan, then select Asset Allocation under the Tools drop-down menu. Your answers online will be saved, so you can always revisit in the future.

Once you have completed the Investment risk profiler, take a look at the Investment fund rates of return included with this brochure. The risk categories chart in Appendix B shows how funds correspond to growth rates. This, combined with your tolerance for risk, as indicated by the Investment risk profiler, will help you choose the funds that suit your risk tolerance and growth goals.

You can change your investment direction for future contributions and transfer money between funds at any time. You will have three easy ways to access your account information:

1. Online at mysunlife.ca at any time
2. Telephone self-service via our Automated Telephone System by calling 1-877-SUN-LIFE, 24-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week
3. By calling one of our Client Care Centre representatives any business day from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. Eastern Time (ET) at 1-877-SUN-LIFE.

There are no fees for transferring your assets between investment options, provided the transfer does not fall under our short-term trading policy.

Fee charged for short-term trading

Frequent trading or “short-term trading” is the practice whereby an investor makes multiple buying and selling transactions on a regular basis in an attempt to time market trends and boost returns to their account.

Short-term trading affects all investors in the fund and can lead to a negative impact on performance. For this reason, Sun Life takes steps to protect plan members from the effects of short-term trading. You may be charged a two per cent fee if you initiate an interfund transfer into a fund followed by an interfund transfer out of the same fund within 30 calendar days. The fee will not be charged for transactions involving guaranteed investments or money market funds, and does not apply to deposits or withdrawals, only interfund transfers.

More information about our short-term trading policy is available at mysunlife.ca.

Fees? What fees?

Regardless of where you invest your money (your workplace plan, a bank or a mutual fund company), you pay fees. But when you contribute to your plan @ work, the fund management fees (FMFs) you pay are often lower than what is paid by a retail investor.

What are FMFs?

FMFs include, but are not limited to, investment management fees as well as operating expenses for both the segregated fund and the underlying fund.

Investment management fees pay for the services of professional investment managers who pick the investments for the fund and build the fund's portfolio. Management activities usually include:

- visiting companies they are considering investing in and analyzing their financial statements and the risks associated with the investment; and
- monitoring all the investments their fund makes and deciding when to sell those investments and buy others.

A fund's operating expenses are made up mainly of its legal and audit fees and transaction costs. Operating expenses also include the fund's administration costs and the costs of its regulatory filings. In some funds, operating expenses also include embedded fees of the underlying fund.

FMFs are usually calculated yearly and are built into your investment. The yearly percentage is deducted in daily amounts from the gross value of the fund. (The exceptions are expense based funds and Sun Life Milestone Segregated Funds, where the fee is based on your asset holdings and calculated monthly.)

In addition, FMFs pay for keeping records of your account and member servicing costs. Applicable taxes also are charged on the management fees and on some portions of operating expenses.

Different fund types, different levels of management

In general, index and money market funds have the lowest management fees, because they tend to require little research or active management.

Foreign equity funds typically charge the highest fees, since they often fluctuate and require continuous monitoring. When the equity fund is foreign, it usually requires even greater research than a domestic fund, and sometimes fund managers need to hire local advisors to help in choosing stocks.

Your fund information

Sign in to mysunlife.ca. Select Account fees under the Plan Overview drop-down menu to find your account and fee information. You can also find fee information on your member account statement.

A final word...yes, fees matter. But it's just as important to choose funds that are right for you and will allow you to meet your long-term financial goals. If you're deciding between two similar funds, though, the difference in their fees could be worth considering.

Know your responsibilities

As a member of my savings, you're responsible for learning about your plan, making investment decisions and for using the tools and information that have been provided to help you make these decisions. You should also decide if seeking investment advice from a qualified individual makes sense for you.

Leaving your employer because of termination or retirement

If you end your employment with your employer or you retire, we'll send you an information package that gives you all of your options for transferring your Group RRSP and Group TFSA account balances out of the plan. A fee of $75 will be levied for withdrawals or transfers to another financial institution when you terminate or retire.

Staying with Sun Life

One of the options available to you is transferring your plan assets directly to Sun Life's Group Choices Plan, an exclusive plan for former group plan members that lets you keep the great Sun Life plan benefits you currently enjoy.

There are a number of reasons why the Group Choices Plan is a good place to transfer your savings:

- Competitive fees – There is never a charge to buy or sell funds, and you'll continue to benefit from investment management fees that can be less than what you'd pay as a retail investor. That could mean thousands of dollars in savings over time!
- Great investment choices – You'll continue to enjoy many or all of the same funds that you have in your current plan, with the choice of many additional options as well.
- 24/7 support – You'll maintain full access to Sun Life's Plan Member Services website, Client Care Centre and Automated Telephone System.
- Easy to do – The switch to the Group Choices Plan is easy – and is cost free. All it takes is a phone call, and we take care of the rest.

The Group Choices Plan is the "default" option if you do not give us instructions within 90 days after you end your employment. In such a case, we will automatically transfer your RRSP assets to the Group Choices Plan RRSP and your TFSA assets to the Group Choices Plan TFSA and invest your savings in the same investment funds. In the event one of your current investment funds is not available under the Group Choices Plan, the assets in that fund will be transferred as indicated by the transition package that you will receive upon termination of employment. You can access Sun Life's Plan Member Services website to update the investment options in your retirement portfolio at any time with no additional charge.

You may also be interested in receiving an annuity. Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada promises to provide you with an annuity payable for your lifetime using the segregated fund and guaranteed fund account balance, your age at the date your annuity payments are scheduled to begin, the type of annuity you choose and annuity purchase rates in effect. Payments will be calculated using the greater of (a) the current payout annuity rate effective at the time of calculation, and (b) a rate specified in the Group Annuity Policy.

The Plan Advisor who services your plan can offer you personalized assistance when making your choice about a transfer option. In addition, our Client Care Centre representatives are available to help you with any questions. If you prefer to find information online, please visit the Stay with Sun Life section of the Plan Member Services website. Simply go to mysunlife.ca and sign in to your account. Select Manage plan for your account. Then select Stay with Sun Life from the Make a Change drop-down menu.

Transfer of your plan assets upon death

In the event of your death while you are still a plan member, your RRSP and TFSA account balances will be paid to your designated beneficiary (or your estate if a beneficiary hasn't been designated) as a lump sum cash payment. No fee will be charged for payments made to a beneficiary or to your estate. No tax is withheld on death benefits paid from your RRSP or TFSA.

If your spouse or common-law partner is your beneficiary, some additional payment options exist:

- For your Group RRSP account, assets can be transferred directly to your spouse or common-law partner's RRSP or Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF), or to a Group Choices Plan RRSP or RRIF in your spouse or common-law partner's name. With respect to your account balance in the RRSP your spouse or common-law partner may also elect to receive a life annuity or fixed-term annuity payable up to age 90.
- For your TFSA account, assets can be transferred to a Group Choices Plan TFSA in your spouse or common-law partner's name, or to an existing TFSA they may have.

Questions and answers

1. Can I transfer money in from other plans?

Yes, you can. If you wish to take full advantage of the competitive fees and other benefits associated with my savings, subject to applicable legislation, you can transfer assets into the plan from:

- Another TFSA that you hold to your my savings TFSA.
- Another RRSP that you hold to your my savings RRSP.
- A previous employer's company pension plan or deferred profit sharing plan to your my savings RRSP.

If you are transferring in assets from a previous employer's pension plan, some of these assets may have to remain 'locked-in' and used only for the purpose of retirement income (not available for cash withdrawal). These amounts will be appropriately tracked when transferred and will be held in a Locked-In Retirement Account (LIRA).

To transfer assets into the plan, simply request an Application for Direct Transfer of Assets Form from the Sun Life Client Care Centre or get the form online. Go to mysunlife.ca, sign into your account, select Manage Plan, then Transfer Money to Sun Life under the Put Money In drop-down menu. Complete it and send it to the financial institution currently holding your registered plan assets.

2. Can I take money out of my Group RRSP at any time?

If your plan allows it, you can withdraw non-locked-in money from your Group RRSP account under my savings (please check with your employer for any restrictions that may apply).

To request a withdrawal, call the Client Care Centre or process the withdrawal through mysunlife.ca. A $25 fee will apply for each withdrawal, including withdrawals under a Home Buyers' Plan or a Lifelong Learning Plan.

It's important to remember that Group RRSP withdrawals reduce your potential savings for retirement. For this reason you may want to consider withdrawing money from your TFSA instead.

For any cash withdrawals from your Group RRSP account, you will receive a T4RSP tax slip in February of the following year, that shows the withdrawal amount and income tax withheld at time of withdrawal.

3. Can I take money out of my TFSA at any time?

Yes, you can. Your TFSA under my savings is designed to help you save for a variety of short- and long-term savings goals. The first withdrawal from your TFSA in each calendar year is free. A $25 fee will apply for any additional withdrawals during the year. All withdrawals from your TFSA are tax free. Please note that TFSA withdrawals are added back to your TFSA contribution room on January 1 of the following calendar year.

To request a withdrawal, call the Client Care Centre, at 1-877-SUN-LIFE, or process the withdrawal through mysunlife.ca.

4. There's an option to choose a Spousal RRSP. How do Spousal RRSPs work?

Under a Spousal RRSP, you make contributions to the RRSP on behalf of your spouse or common-law partner. The amount you can contribute to the Spousal RRSP is subject to your RRSP contribution limit, not your spouse or partner's, and you receive the income tax deduction.

The benefit of contributing to a Spousal RRSP is that when money is taken out of the Spousal RRSP in retirement, it's taxed in your spouse or partner's hands, not yours. So if they are in a lower tax bracket in retirement, your overall family tax bill will be lower.

One rule you'll want to note, however, is that amounts withdrawn from the Spousal RRSP by your spouse or partner are taxed back to you if the withdrawal is made within three calendar years from the time you made the contribution.

In addition, under recent federal tax law changes, the splitting of retirement income that comes from RRSP savings is now allowed for those age 65 and older, so there are fewer situations in which there is a need for a Spousal RRSP. For this reason, you may want to get professional tax advice before opening up a Spousal RRSP account.

5. What statements, tax receipts and communications will I receive?

In addition to account and transaction information available on Sun Life's Plan Member Services website and through the Automated Telephone System, you will receive annual account statements in December (showing balances as at the end of November) that provide information about your account.

You can also view your member account statements on Sun Life's Plan Member Services website. Account statements are available online in June and December (showing account balances as at the end of May and November). Simply select the Statement link under the Accounts drop-down menu.

For your Group RRSP account, we'll send you tax receipts for your contributions twice a year. The first receipt, issued in January, covers the contributions received at our head office in the last 305 days of the preceding calendar year (March to December).

The second receipt, issued in March, covers the contributions received in the first 60 days of the current calendar year. This allows you to claim the contributions made in the first 60 days of the year either in the year in which they were made or in the previous calendar year, whichever is more advantageous to you. You can also choose to carry forward your RRSP contributions and deduct them in a future tax year.

We also post our electronic plan member newsletter – my money At a Glance – six times a year, on sunlife/ata glance. The newsletter and online information provide important information that can help you effectively manage your savings for the future.

6. What are my responsibilities under the plan?

As a member of a group retirement savings plan with more than one investment option, you are responsible for:

- Making sure you understand how your plan works
- Taking advantage of the information and tools made available to you to help you make your investment decisions
- Taking advantage of the investment advisory services of your Plan Advisor
- Making actual investment decisions
- Determining how much you will contribute to your plan
- Checking to see how your investments are performing and revising your investment strategy if your personal circumstances change.

A score of 86 to 145 points — Balanced

You're looking for long-term capital growth and a stream of regular income. You're seeking relatively stable returns, but will accept some volatility. You understand that you can't achieve capital growth without some element of risk.

A score of 146 to 190 points — Growth

You can tolerate relatively high volatility. You realize that, over time, equity markets usually outperform other investments. However, you're not comfortable having all your investments in equities. You're looking for long-term capital growth with some income.

A score of 191 points or over — Aggressive

You can tolerate volatility and significant fluctuations in the value of your investment because you realize that, historically, equities perform better than other types of investments. You're looking for long-term capital growth and are less concerned with shorter-term volatility.

Appendix B

Risk categories

Risk categories

Low

Low-risk investments play an important role when you are saving for short-term goals, as you may need the money within a year or two and will likely not be able to recoup any losses that may occur. In a retirement plan, low-risk investments are favoured by investors who wish to preserve their nest egg as they approach retirement.

Low to Moderate

The low-to-moderate risk investments offer the chance to earn income with a low level of risk. The long-term returns of bond funds are expected to be greater than those provided by the lower-risk guaranteed and money market investments. Bonds also offer a consistent rate of return compared to equity or balanced funds. In a retirement plan, low-to-moderate risk investments balance out the risk from other asset classes.

Moderate

Moderate-risk investments such as balanced funds, also known as diversified funds, provide a mix of stocks, bonds and cash in one investment. The automatic diversification that occurs by investing in a variety of asset classes reduces the risk if one asset class performs poorly.

Moderate to High

Moderate-to-high risk investments include equity or stock funds, such as Canadian or foreign equity funds. Generally, these funds are expected to outperform other types of investments as they offer the greatest potential for long-term growth; however they also fluctuate more than other investments and thus have higher risk.

5 Beneficiary designation

Complete this section to designate a beneficiary for your account. In the absence of a beneficiary designation, and if not payable to your spouse as prescribed by law, death benefits will be paid to your estate.

Caution in all provinces except Quebec: Your designation of a beneficiary will not be changed or revoked automatically by any future marriage or divorce. Should you wish to change or revoke your beneficiary in the event of a future marriage or divorce, you have to make a new designation. In Quebec, a divorce granted after December 1st, 1982 cancels the beneficiary designation of the married spouse. In Quebec if you name more than one beneficiary and give them unequal shares of the benefit and one of them dies, the deceased beneficiary's share will default to contingent beneficiary or estate rather than being divided amongst the other beneficiaries.

Note: To appoint a trustee for a beneficiary who is a minor, please complete the 'Appointment of trustee for a minor beneficiary' form. In Quebec, any amount payable to a minor beneficiary during his/her minority will be paid to the parent(s) or legal guardian on his/her behalf.

If you have a spouse when you die, the law may stipulate that all or part of the death benefit be paid to your qualifying spouse, unless your spouse waives the death benefit. A beneficiary designation other than your spouse would only apply to those death benefits which are not, according to the law, payable to your surviving spouse. If you wish your spouse to receive all benefits, please ensure you designate your spouse as beneficiary in the space below.

I revoke any previous beneficiary designations and name as beneficiary for benefits due on my death:

Beneficiary's first name	Middle initial	Last name
Relationship to you*	<input type="checkbox"/> Revocable	Date of birth (dd-mm-yyyy)	Percentage of benefits %

*Following are the values to be used for relationship

Fiancé(e)	Friend	Former spouse	Father	Mother
Brother	Sister	Son	Daughter	Nephew
Niece	Aunt	Uncle	Cousin	Grandchild
Grandparent	Step family	Family-in-law	Institution	Other

Where Quebec law applies, a married or civil union spouse beneficiary is irrevocable unless you indicate otherwise. To avoid this restriction and make your legal spouse designation revocable, you must check the revocable box above.

If your beneficiary is irrevocable, you may not change your beneficiary designation and may not be able to withdraw/transfer your assets out of the plan unless you provide Sun Life Financial with the irrevocable beneficiary's written consent.

6 Contingent beneficiary appointment

Complete this section to appoint a contingent (secondary) beneficiary for your account.

If there is no surviving beneficiary at the time of my death, I declare that the following contingent beneficiary shall receive all benefits due on my death in accordance with any applicable legislation. If there is no surviving contingent beneficiary at the time of my death, the proceeds shall be paid to my estate.

I revoke all previous contingent beneficiary appointments.
