

Sun Life wins platinum!

On October 29, 2015, it was announced that Sun Life Financial had won platinum certification from Excellence Canada for Excellence, Innovation & Wellness. This is a real honour for us and highlights our commitment to excellence as a corporation.

Platinum is the highest level of achievement offered by Excellence Canada and recognizes the nation's best-run corporations in leadership, strategy, customer experience, people engagement, process management and partners. This win comes just two years after winning gold recognition as a new entrant.
