

Sun Life a winner in first annual Canadian HR Reporter Readers' Choice Awards!

In their first annual Readers' Choice Awards, the Canadian HR Reporter polled its readers to find out who their favourites in the industry are and Sun Life is a winner!

More than 17,000 digital ballots were cast by readers over the past few months. The winners were unveiled this June and Sun Life was honoured as the 2016 Readers' Choice winner in the Insurance & Risk Management category as a Group Insurance Provider.

At Sun Life, we strive to provide service excellence and it means a lot to us to know that plan sponsors and those we provide group benefits to voted us as their favourite. As Todd Humber, Editor-in-Chief at Canadian HR Reporter, writes in his editorial to the Readers' Choice special section, the award is "not an endorsement from the editors of Canadian HR Reporter – it's something far better. It's a seal of approval from your colleagues."ⁱ
