

Moving Up: Sun Life Financial is relocating its Corporate Headquarters to One York Street

Sun Life Financial will consolidate its two Toronto offices into a new corporate headquarters, located in the dynamic financial district at One York Street. The Business Development unit, including National Accounts, SunSolutions and SunAdvantage, is set to move on April 7, 2017.

Why are we moving?

One York has become a very desirable location for many Canadian head offices and the building design is set to create a memorable landmark to the downtown core. Sun Life Financial is excited to be a part of this project and to help shape the marketplace and promote environmental sustainability.

The new eco-friendly property supports the sustainable growth initiatives and multi-faceted needs of our business. One York will offer Sun Life Financial clients, advisors and employees a bright and open business environment. The 800,000 square foot office tower, designed to achieve Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Platinum certification, will provide an exclusive terrace, green space, 200,000 square feet of retail, underground parking and connection to Toronto's PATH network.
