

Sun Life Pharma News keeps you on top of trends and changes

Sun Life Pharma News is a tri-annual bulletin that shares the latest trends and changes to the pharmaceutical industry, as well as insights from the Sun Life Pharma team.

This issue of Pharma News focuses on innovation, and also takes a look at drugs recently added to Sun Life's prior authorization program and others in the pipeline. The opening editorial comes from Liette Champagne and Atul Goela, Directors, Pharmaceutical Benefits, and the educational corner is provided by Julie Blouin, our Senior Clinical Pharmacy Consultant.

The next issue should be available this spring. In the meantime, you can read the previous issue of Pharma News here.
