

Sun Life supporting BC

Sun Life Financial continues to provide direct support to plan members who are being impacted by the wildfires in BC. Teams across all business areas of Sun Life have been made aware of the situation to ensure we are able to provide assistance to those impacted in this difficult time.

If your organization is being impacted, we encourage you to contact your Sun Life Financial group benefits representative.

Answers for you here and now

We've put together some of the most frequently asked questions that we have been receiving from our clients and their employees impacted by this natural disaster so that you may have answers here to assist you and those you support.

This FAQ document will be refreshed as new information becomes available, but we suggest that you connect with your Sun Life representative for current updates.

Sun Life and the Canadian Red Cross

Sun Life has already made a donation to the Canadian Red Cross to help people displaced by the fires and we're encouraging our employees to donate to the Canadian Red Cross through our Corporate Matching program. Donations will provide relief for those affected in the form of food, clothing, shelter, personal services, and other vital necessities. We want to help.

Sharing information with our clients

Sun Life has prepared a member communication and FAQ for you to share with your employees. In addition to these FAQ's, we've prepared the attached post disaster guidance document that will provide some guidance to your organization should you be experiencing a crisis for the first time and not have a plan in place.

Questions?

Contact your Sun Life Financial group benefits representative.