

Coming soon – more enhancements that elevate the digital experience for our clients!

Back in March, we gave you an overview of the digital enhancements being launched during the first half of the year. From now until December, there are more to come - making it faster, easier, and more convenient for our clients to manage their plans both online and on the go.

Over the next few months, several new features will be added to both the my Sun Life Mobile app and mysunlife.ca – all providing a better user experience and making it easier for our clients to do business with Sun Life.

The table below highlights some of the releases coming soon – stay tuned for more details.
