Introducing Lumino Health Centre on mysunlife.ca

We're thrilled to announce the launch of Lumino Health Centre on mysunlife.ca. This change takes effect on August 31, 2020, at no additional cost to you.

This launch embeds the Lumino Health platform into our secure site. Lumino Health, an innovation from Sun Life, helps Canadians find health and wellness information to support their health journey.

We understand that your plan members' needs are diverse and always changing. Wellness resources are important to you and your plan members. We want to continually offer resources that meet your changing needs.

Lumino Health Centre makes it easier for plan members to find the tools and resources relevant to them. It offers plan members access to Canada's largest network of providers, credible health content, and discounts and offers. By making it even more accessible, we're making it easier for plan members to live healthier lives.
